Dear Brian:

I wanted to thank you for giving the 1800 attendees of Kraft's Annual Sales and Marketing Meeting in Las Vegas last month a memorable and energy-generating experience!

You had quite a task in front of you--how to get 300 people at a time to experience new Kraft products in about 8 minutes. You were able to develop a wonderful and engaging approach using the Simon Says techniques that led people into the experience and then brought them together again to share ideas. Surprisingly, you were able to keep all 6 sessions fresh and energetic.

Most impressive for me, however, was your flexibility and your focus on meeting our mutual client's expectations. Direction kept changing, but you rolled with the changes and always with a smile. You came up with good ideas that were designed to help the client achieve his objectives.

I hope we have the opportunity to work together on another project soon.

Sincerely,

Dorothy J. Balabanos
President
